

Arabian Cement Receives Top Global Energy Management Award

23 May 2017– Arabian Cement Company won the 2017 Award of Excellence in Energy Management from the Clean Energy Ministerial (CEM), a high-level global forum that promotes policies and programs to advance clean energy. CEM Energy Ministerial will present this prestigious CEM award to Eng. Mahmoud Mohsen- Company's Energy Manager at the annual CEM meeting in Beijing, China on 8 June 2017.

An independent panel of international experts selected only three organizations worldwide for this top honor in energy management.

This award is part of the CEM Energy Management Leadership Awards program, managed by CEM's Energy Management Working Group (EMWG), which includes representatives from Australia, Canada, Chile, China, Denmark, the European Commission, Finland, Germany, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Sweden, United Arab Emirates, and the United States.